viewpoint

“Having worked in the legal profession for over 30 years, I am still amazed by the variety of problems and issues which, here at Latimer Hinks, we are asked to address.

I relish the challenge of helping Clients, particularly the elderly and those who act as carers, navigate their way through the legal complexities to secure their objectives. In many cases the issues involve a number of complex and intricate moving parts which need to be brought into alignment.

I also very much enjoy the human aspect of my work, particularly the fascinating and, in many cases, very humorous and/or courageous people I've met and for whom I have had the pleasure to act over the years.”
